These forward-looking statements are based on the Company's historical performance and its plans, estimates and expectations as of February 3, 2022. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees that the future results, plans, intentions or expectations expressed or implied by the Company will be achieved. Matters subject to forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties, including economic, legislative, regulatory, competitive and other factors, which may cause actual financial or operating results, levels of activity or the timing of events to be materially different from those expressed or implied by forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include: the spread of COVID-19 and its direct and indirect effects on global economic and financial conditions; changes in interest rates and fees payable by banks participating in the Company's client cash programs; the Company's strategy and success in managing client cash program fees; changes in general economic and financial market conditions, including retail investor sentiment; fluctuations in the levels of advisory and brokerage assets, including net new assets, and the related impact on revenue; the effects of competition in the financial services industry; the success of the Company in attracting and retaining financial advisors and institutions, and their ability to market effectively financial products and services; whether retail investors served by newly-recruited advisors choose to move their respective assets to new accounts at the Company; changes in the growth and profitability of the Company's fee-based offerings; the effect of current, pending and future legislation, regulation and regulatory actions, including disciplinary actions imposed by federal and state regulators and self-regulatory organizations; the costs of settling and remediating issues related to regulatory matters or legal proceedings, including actual costs of reimbursing customers for losses in excess of the Company's reserves; changes made to the Company's services and pricing, and the effect that such changes may have on the Company's Gross Profit* streams and costs; execution of the Company's plans and its success in realizing the synergies, expense savings, service improvements and/or efficiencies expected to result from its investments, initiatives, acquisitions and programs; the successful integration of the Waddell & Reed wealth management business; and the other factors set forth in Part I, "Item 1A. Risk Factors" in the Company's 2020 Annual Report on Form 10-K, as may be amended or updated in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q or other filings with the SEC. Except as required by law, the Company specifically disclaims any obligation to update any forward-looking statements as a result of developments occurring after February 3, 2022, even if its estimates change, and statements contained herein are not to be relied upon as representing the Company's views as of any date subsequent to February 3, 2022.

THIS PRESENTATION INCLUDES DATA AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2021, UNLESS OTHERWISE INDICATED.

Notice to Investors: Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Management believes that presenting certain non-GAAP financial measures by excluding or including certain items can be helpful to investors and analysts who may wish to use this information to analyze the Company's current performance, prospects and valuation. Management uses this non-GAAP information internally to evaluate operating performance and in formulating the budget for future periods. Management believes that the non-GAAP financial measures and metrics discussed herein are appropriate for evaluating the performance of the Company. Specific Non-GAAP financial measures have been marked with an asterisk (*) within this presentation. Reconciliations and calculations of such measures can be found in the appendix of this presentation.

EPS prior to amortization of intangible assets and acquisition costs is defined as adjusted net income, a non-GAAP measure defined as net income plus the after-tax impact of amortization of other intangibles and acquisition costs, divided by the weighted average number of diluted shares outstanding for the applicable period. The Company presents adjusted net income and EPS prior to amortization of intangible assets and acquisition costs because management believes that these metrics can provide investors with useful insight into the Company's core operating performance by excluding non-cash items and acquisition costs that management does not believe impact the Company's ongoing operations. Adjusted net income and EPS prior to amortization of intangible assets and acquisition costs are not measures of the Company's financial performance under GAAP and should not be considered as an alternative to net income, earnings per diluted share or any other performance measure derived in accordance with GAAP. For a reconciliation of net income and earnings per diluted share to adjusted net income and EPS prior to amortization of intangible assets and acquisition costs, please see the appendix of this presentation.

Gross profit is calculated as total revenue less advisory and commission expense and brokerage, clearing and exchange fees ("BC&E"). All other expense categories, including depreciation and amortization of property and equipment and amortization of other intangibles, are considered general and administrative in nature. Because the Company's gross profit amounts do not include any depreciation and amortization expense, the Company considers gross profit to be a non-GAAP financial measure that may not be comparable to similar measures used by others in its industry. Management believes that gross profit can provide investors with useful insight into the Company's core operating performance before indirect costs that are general and administrative in nature. For a calculation of gross profit, please see the appendix of this presentation.

Core G&A consists of total expense less the following expenses: advisory and commission; depreciation and amortization; amortization of other intangibles; brokerage, clearing and exchange; interest expense on borrowings; loss on extinguishment of debt; promotional; acquisition costs; employee share-based compensation; and regulatory charges. Management presents core G&A because it believes core G&A reflects the corporate expense categories over which management can generally exercise a measure of control, compared with expense items over which management either cannot exercise control, such as advisory and commission, or which management views as promotional expense necessary to support advisor growth and retention, including conferences and transition assistance. Core G&A is not a measure of the Company's total expense as calculated in accordance with GAAP. For a reconciliation of core G&A to the Company's total expense, please see the appendix of this presentation. The Company does not provide an outlook for its total expense because it contains expense components, such as advisory and commission, that are market-driven and over which the Company cannot exercise control. Accordingly, a reconciliation of the Company's outlook for core G&A to an outlook for total expense cannot be made available without unreasonable effort.

EBITDA is defined as net income plus interest expense on borrowings, provision for income taxes, depreciation and amortization, and amortization of other intangibles. During the third quarter of 2021, the Company changed its definition of EBITDA to include the loss on extinguishment of debt and has updated prior period disclosures to reflect this change as applicable. The Company presents EBITDA because management believes that it can be a useful financial metric in understanding the Company's earnings from operations. EBITDA is not a measure of the Company's financial performance under GAAP and should not be considered as an alternative to net income or any other performance measure derived in accordance with GAAP. For a reconciliation of net income to EBITDA, please see the appendix of this presentation.

We are well positioned to benefit from rising interest rates on client cash balances

Annual potential Gross Profit* benefit from rising interest rates

- Over the last interest rate cycle, our deposit beta averaged ~15%
 - Early in the cycle, deposit betas were much lower, and ours averaged ~2.5% over the first 4 Fed rate hikes
- If we applied those deposit betas from the last cycle to our current client cash balances, this would translate to:
 - ~$310M of Annual Gross Profit* over the first 4 rate hikes, equivalent to ~$90M per rate hike for the first 2 and ~$65M per rate hike for the next 2, at a ~2.5% deposit beta
 - After the first 4 rate hikes, ~$50M of annual Gross Profit* per rate hike at a ~25% deposit beta

Estimated Interest Rate Sensitivity based on current balances and last interest rate cycle deposit betas

Note: Assumes change based on Q4 2021 end of period ICA balances. Additionally, as money market overflow balances shift back into ICA, there would be an additional upside of ~$30M per rate hike after the first two rate hikes at a ~2.5% deposit beta.

In Q4, client cash balances continued to grow

ICA balances, including Money Market Overflow ($B)

Overflow balances provide capacity when balances spike

- When ICA balances exceed our fixed and variable contract capacity, we use ICA and money market overflow contracts
- In the current interest rate environment, the interest rate earned on overflow ICA contracts averages 1 to 2 basis points, while money market sweep contracts earn ~4 basis points

Variable balances are mostly indexed to Fed Funds

- Most variable balances are indexed to Fed Funds + a spread (~20 to ~30 bps)
- However, some are indexed to one month LIBOR
- In the current environment, new variable contracts are averaging Fed Funds flat

Fixed rate ICA contracts are laddered over ~4 years

- New contract: In Q4, we added ~$0.5B of 3 year fixed rate balances maturing in 2024, with a ~80 bps yield consistent with the 3-year point at the curve when contracted
- Renewed contract: In Q1, we reached an agreement to renew a $1B contract that was maturing in Q1 of 2022 with a ~325 bps yield. The new contract is for 4 years maturing in 2026 with a ~140 bps yield, consistent with the 4-year point of the curve when contracted

*Weighted average yield across ladder is ~260 bps

We remain focused on investing to drive organic growth while delivering long-term operating leverage in our core business

Long-term cost strategy

- Deliver operating leverage in core business
- Prioritize investments that drive additional growth
- Drive productivity and efficiency
- Adapt cost trajectory as environment evolves

2022 Core G&A* context

- Our 2021 Core G&A* was $1,058M, which was in the upper half of our outlook range of $1,045M to $1,060M. This translates to ~8% year-over-year Core G&A growth prior to costs related to Waddell & Reed
- We are seeing positive results as we continue to prioritize investments that drive organic growth and deliver operating leverage in our core business. Given this, in 2022 we plan to increase Core G&A in a similar zone
- Our 2022 Core G&A* outlook range is ~7% to ~9.5% year-over-year growth, or $1,135M to $1,160M, with investments focused in two main areas:
 - Core business growth, including investments in technology and capabilities, and a full year of Waddell & Reed
 - Expand addressable markets and scale new services – Business Solutions, new affiliation models, and large financial institutions

...And we have continued to return capital to shareholders

Share Repurchases and Dividends ($M)

[†] Shareholder Payout Ratio is defined as (Dividends + Share Repurchases) / Net Income

[‡] Increased share repurchase authorization to $1B as of December 31, 2018.

APPENDIX

Key drivers of promotional expense growth

Promotional Expense ($M)

Context for 2022:

- Organic Growth investments will be primarily driven by our level of recruiting and the resulting transition assistance
- Conferences expected to increase as we plan to return to in person events
- Large Financial Institutions non-recurring expenses associated with onboarding BMO Harris Bank and M&T Bank are largely complete, so 2022 non-recurring expenses will be primarily driven by onboarding CUNA
